

How to use GeoScienceWorld: Even if you haven't (yet) gotten your library to subscribe!

1. Search the archives to find the references you need.
2. Search the archives by topical keyword! Or author! Or date! Explore!
3. Read the abstracts — they pop up in your browser.
4. All articles are available via pay-per-view: click on the “full article” or “PDF” view and follow the instructions!
5. Of course, you can Email the author via the “hotlink” and request an e-print or offprint!
6. Click on the abstract, then look at the boxes on the right. ● Email the abstract to a friend. ● Find similar articles. ● Download to various citation managers. ● View the Citation Map.
7. Sign up FREE for the Alerting Functions!
(<http://www.geoscienceworld.org/cgi/register>)
 - Tables of contents ● New issue available ● CiteTrack ● Multi-Journal alerts
 - Citation Alerts ● Corrections Alerts!
8. View the upcoming articles on the home page and sign up for an “etoc” — a “future table of contents” emailed to you when posted.
9. Check out the “most read” and “most cited” lists on the home page!
10. Surf our “Special Issues” collections links on the home page.
11. Explore an online sample issue — a real issue of American Mineralogist showing the full text, PDF views, links to figure views and supplemental data, reference linking, and so on — enjoy this and show it to your librarian!
12. Links to information about MSA, submission how-to's, American Mineralogist editors, GSW, and so much more!
