“A sharp white line peak at 11868 eV is found in the curve of 44J-P5, which is a typical XANES curve of As in arsenian pyrite (Simon et al. 1999a).”

“..., low concentrations and heterogeneous distribution of Au in arsenian pyrite, and even controversial interpretations of the XAS results (Pokrovski et al. 2014; Filimonova et al. 2020).”
