

Supplemental Figure 1. Magnetic susceptibility as a function of temperature. Measured performed on a Geophysics Kappabridge KLY-2 (300 Am^{-1} field at 920 Hz). Lower part shows second derivative of susceptibility with respect to temperature. Sample does not have a lambda transition and shows a single Néel temperature at 318°C .