CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE MINERALOGICAL SOCIETY OF AMERICA

November 1971

Article I. Name

This Society shall be known as the Mineralogical Society of America.

Article II. Object

The object of this Society shall be the advancement of mineralogy, crystallography and petrology, and the promotion of their use in other sciences and in industry.

Article III. Officers

Section 1. The Officers of the Society shall be a president, a vice-president, a secretary and a treasurer. These four officers, the retiring president, and six ordinary members or fellows at large shall constitute the council. The president and the vice-president shall each be elected annually for a term of one year. The secretary and the treasurer shall be elected biennially, in alternate years, for terms of two years. The six ordinary members or fellows at large shall be elected two each year for terms of three years each. The secretary and treasurer shall be eligible for election to no more than two terms in either office. The president, the vice-president and the elected councilors shall be limited to one term each.

A vacancy occurring in any office between annual election periods may be filled until the next regularly scheduled election and installation for that office by a past incumbent or by any other ordinary member or fellow, appointed by a two-thirds vote of the Council.

Section 2. The editor shall be appointed by the president annually subject to approval by a two-thirds vote of the entire Council.

Section 3. Ordinary members and fellows are eligible for office.

Section 4. The Council shall be empowered to choose from time to time as honorary officers of the Society persons of eminence in the field of mineralogy who shall serve for life.
